Back to the Future: The Musical

Book by Bob Gale, Music and Lyrics by Alan Silvestri and Glen Ballard, based on the film by Robert Zemeckis and Bob Gale.,,

The musical adaptation of the classic film “Back to the Future” follows the adventures of Marty McFly, a teenager who is accidentally sent back in time to 1955 in a DeLorean time machine invented by his eccentric friend, Dr. Emmett “Doc” Brown. Stranded in the past, Marty must navigate high school life in the 1950s and ensure his parents fall in love, or risk altering the future. Along the way, he encounters a young version of his mother, Lorraine, and his father, George, and must outwit the town bully, Biff Tannen. Marty also teams up with the younger Doc Brown to repair the DeLorean and find a way to harness the power needed to return to 1985. Amidst the chaos, Marty faces numerous obstacles that test his ingenuity and resilience. With the clock ticking, he must ensure his existence and protect the timeline, leading to a thrilling climax where he races against time to save his future.
